FORGIVE ME

Dear Sir:

I am writing this request to forgive me because I have come to learn of my tremendous mistake. I fully understand that listening to patriot people in the public on how to obtain remedy was a huge mistake. Forgive me for my failure to do the proper study on learning how to come to my brother and properly resolve matters instead of filing liens on persons.

I understand this was a serious mistake. I had no intentions on causing harm and thought I was following the law. I simply thought at that time I was doing the right thing. I make no excuse for taking bad advise.

It was a tremendous mistake and ill advised and completely out of line. Please be advised I would never do such a thing again. I understand that public servants must have a difficult job in dealing with people who don't understand law and don't understand how to come to harmony. I now again re-iterate, I fully understand my mistake and how I must have offended and or inconvenienced you. I have but two words "FORGIVE ME".

Sincerely,

Cherron Marie Phillips
